Abstract

Michigan State University is committed to providing all students the opportunity to acquire the same information, engage in the same interactions, and enjoy the same services. As instructors at MSU this often means that we are asked to provide academic accommodations to students with disabilities. This talk will relay information from the College of Natural Science Accessibility Committee, giving perspective and explanation for the different types of accommodations we may be asked to give, as well as resources available to help you meet both student needs and federally mandated requirements.

To request an interpreter or other accommodations for people with disabilities, please call the Department of Statistics and Probability at 517-355-9589.
